CHAPTER II
THE UNIVERSITY

3. (1) There shall be a University by the name "Tamil Nadu Open University".

2. (1) The University shall be a body corporate, shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and shall sue and be sued by the said name.

3. (1) The Headquarters of the University shall be located at Chennai and it may establish or maintain Colleges, Regional Centres and Study Centres at such other places in Tamil Nadu, other States of the Indian Union and outside the country as it may deem fit.

4. (1) The University shall endeavour through education, research, training and extension to play a positive role in the development of Tamil Nadu, and based on the rich heritage of the State, to promote and advance the culture of the people of India, especially Tamil Nadu and its human resources. Towards this end, it shall have the following objects namely.

(a) to strengthen and diversify the degree, certificate and diploma courses related to the needs of employment and necessary for building the economy of the State on the basis of its natural and human resources;

(b) to provide access to higher education for large segments of the population, and in particular, the disadvantaged groups such as those living in remote and rural areas including working people, housewives and other adults who wish to upgrade or acquire knowledge through studies in various fields;

(c) to provide acquisition of knowledge in a rapidly developing and changing society and to continually offer opportunities for upgrading knowledge, training and skills in the context of innovations, research and discovery in all fields of human endeavours;

(d) to provide an innovative system of University level education, flexible and open, in regard to methods and pace of learning, combination of courses, eligibility for enrolment, age of entry, medium of instruction, conduct of examination and operation of the programmes with a view to promote learning and encourage excellence in new fields of knowledge;

(e) to contribute to the improvement of the educational system in the state by providing a non-formal channel complementary to the formal system and encouraging transfer of credits and exchange of teaching staff by making wide use of texts and other software developed by the University;

(f) to provide education and training in the various arts, crafts and skills of the country, raising their quality and improving their availability to the people;

(g) to provide or arrange training of teachers required for such activities or institutions;

(h) to provide suitable post-graduate courses of study and promote research;

(i) to provide counselling and guidance to its students; and

(j) to promote national integration and the integrated development of the human personality through its policies and programmes;

(k) to encourage the Open University and distance education system in the educational pattern of the State and to coordinate and determine the standards in such systems.

(2) The University shall strive to fulfil the above objects by a diversity of means of distance and continuing education, and shall function in co-operation with the exiting Universities and Institutions of higher learning and make full use of the latest scientific knowledge and new educational technology to offer a high quality of education which matches contemporary needs. Towards this end, it shall have the following powers, namely;

(i) to provide for instruction in such branches of knowledge, technology, vocations and professions as the University may determine from time to time and to make provision for research;

(ii) to plan and prescribe courses of study for degrees, diplomas, certificates or for any other purpose;

(iii) to hold examinations and confer degrees, diplomas, certificates or other academic distinctions or recognitions on persons who have pursued a course of study or conducted research as prescribed;

(iv) to confer honorary degrees or other distinctions in the manner prescribed;

(v) to determine the manner in which distance education in relation to the academic programmes of the University may be organized;

(vi) to institute professorships, readerships, lecturerships and other academic positions necessary for imparting instruction or for preparing educational material or for conducting other academic activities, including guidance, designing and delivery of course and evaluation of the work done by the students, and to appoint persons to such professorships, readerships, lecturerships and other academic position;

(vii) to co-operate with, and seek the co-operation of, other Universities and institutions of higher learning, professional bodies and organisations, for such purposes as the University considers necessary;

(viii) to institute and award fellowships, scholarships, prizes and such other awards for recognition of merit as the University may deem fit;

(ix) to establish and maintain such Regional Centres as may be determined by the University from time to time;

(x) to establish, maintain or recognise Study Centres in the manner prescribed;

(xi) to provide for the preparation of instructional materials, including films, cassettes, types, video cassettes and other software;

(xii) to organise and conduct refresher courses, workshops, seminars and other programmes for teachers, lesson writers, evaluators and other academic staff;

(xiii) to recognise examinations of, or periods of study (whether in full or part) at, other Universities, Institutions or other places of higher learning as equivalent to examinations or periods of study in the University, and to withdraw such recognition at any time;

(xiv) to make provision for research and development in educational technology and related matters;

(xv) to create administrative, ministerial and other necessary posts and to make appointments thereto;

(xvi) to receive benefactions, donations and gifts and to acquire, hold, maintain and dispose of any property movable or immovable, including trust and Government property, for the purposes of the University.

(xvii) to borrow, with the approval of the Government whether on the security of the property of the University or otherwise, money for the purposes of the University.

(xviii) to enter into, carry out, vary or cancel contracts;

(xix) to demand and receive such fees and other charges as may be laid down by the ordinances;

(xx) to provide, control and maintain discipline among the students and all categories of employees and to lay down the conditions of service of such employees, including their codes of conduct;

(xxii) to recognise any institution of higher learning or studies for such purposes as the university may determine and to withdraw such recognitions;

(xxiii) to appoint, either on contract or otherwise, Visiting Professors, Emeritus Professors, Consultants, fellows, scholars, artists, course writers and such other persons who may contribute to the advancement of the objects of the University;

(xxiv) to recognise persons working in other Universities, Institutions or organisations as teachers of the University on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed;

(xxv) to determine standards and to specify conditions for the admission of students to courses of study of the University which may include examination, evaluation and any other method of testing;

(xxvi) to make arrangements for the promotion of the general health and welfare of the employees;

(xxvii) to confer autonomous status on a college or a Regional Centre in the manner laid down by the statutes;

(xxviii) to admit to its privileges any College in Tamil Nadu or other States of Indian Union or outside India, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed;

(xxviii) to do all such acts as may be necessary or incidental to the exercise of all or any of the powers of the University as are necessary and conducive to the promotion of all or any of the objects of the University;

5. (1) The University shall, subject to the provisions of this Act and the statutes, be open to all persons;

Provided that special efforts shall be taken to encourage the oppressed classes and disadvantaged groups.

(2) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall require the University-

(a) to admit to any course of study any person who does not possess the prescribed academic qualification or standard;

(b) to retain on the rolls of the University any student whose academic record is below the minimum standard required for the award of a degree, diploma or other academic distinction; or

(c) to admit any person or retain any student whose conduct is prejudicial to the interests of the University or the rights and privileges of other students and teachers.

6. (1) The Government shall have the right to cause an inspection or inquiry, to be made, by such person or persons, as they may direct, of the University, its buildings, laboratories, libraries, museums, workshops and equipments and also of the examinations, teaching and other work conducted or done by the University, and to cause an inquiry to be made in respect of any matter connected with the University. The Government shall, in every case given notice to the University of their intention to cause such inspection or inquiry to be made and the University shall be entitled to be represented thereat.

(2) The Government shall communicate to the Syndicate their views with reference to the results of such inspection or inquiry and may, after ascertaining the opinion of the Syndicate thereon, advise the University upon the action to be taken and fix a time limit for taking such action.

(3) The Syndicate shall report to the Government the action, if any, which is proposed to be taken or has been taken, upon the result of such inspection or inquiry. Such report shall be submitted within such time as the Government may direct.

(4) Where the Syndicate does not take action to the satisfaction of the Government within a reasonable time, the Government may, after considering any explanation furnished or representation made by the Syndicate, issue such directions as they may think fit and the Syndicate shall comply with such directions. In the event of the Syndicate not complying with such directions within such time as may be fixed in that behalf by the Government, the Government shall have power to appoint any person or body to comply with such directions and make such orders as may be necessary for the expenses thereof.

(b) Three eminent persons to be nominated by the Pro-Chancellor on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor of whom, one shall be from the non-formal sector, one shall be from commerce or industry and the third shall represent the learned professions:

Provided that the members nominated under item (b), and (c) and (d) are such persons who will guide the Vice-Chancellor in administrative, academic and financial matters including any issues connected with social justice and policies of the State Government.
(c) One Director nominated by the Chancellor on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor;
(d) One University Professor nominated by the Chancellor on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor;
(e) One University Reader nominated by the Vice-Chancellor by rotation according to seniority; and
(f) One University Lecturer nominated by the Vice-Chancellor, by rotation according to seniority; and
(g) Two persons to be co-opted by the Syndicate out of whom one may be an expert on distance education, and the other has special knowledge of or experience in media or communication field.

(3) (a) Save as otherwise provided, the members of the Syndicate, other than the ex-officio members, shall hold office for a period of three years and such members shall be eligible for election or nomination for not more than another period of three years.

(b) Where a member is nominated to the Syndicate in a casual vacancy, the period of office held for not less than one year by any such member shall be construed as a full period of three years;

Provided that a member of the Syndicate who is nominated in his capacity as, a member of a particular electorate or body, or the holder of a particular appointment, shall cease to be a member of the Syndicate from the date on which he ceases to be, a member of that body, or the holder of that appointment, as the case may be;

(4) When a person ceases to be a member of the Syndicate, he shall cease to be a member of any of the authorities of the University of which he may happen to be a member by virtue of his membership of the Syndicate.

(5) The members of the Syndicate shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration from the University except such daily and travelling allowances as may be prescribed;

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall preclude any member from drawing his normal emoluments to which he is entitled by virtue of the office he holds.

CHAPTER - X

PROVISIONS COMMON TO ALL AUTHORITIES

104 Where power is conferred on the Chancellor to nominate persons to the Authorities, he shall, in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor and to the extent necessary, nominate persons to represent interests not otherwise adequately represented. Accordingly, the data needed to perform this function shall be furnished by the Registrar.

105 (1) Where a mid-term vacancy is filled, the person so nominated shall hold office for the residuary term of the office of the member whose place is filled in. This provision does not apply to ex-officio members.

(2) Vacancies in the office of the members of the Authorities which occur within six months of the scheduled date of expiry of the prescribed term shall not be filled in.

106 Quorum for the meetings is specific to each Authority.

(a) The Chairman shall also be counted for ascertainment of existence of the quorum.

(b) At the scheduled time of commencement of the meeting, if there is no quorum a margin of fifteen minutes shall be allowed and the question as to whether quorum exists shall be decided at the end of said margin. Where the meeting is adjourned for want of quorum, the next meeting shall be held at the same time on the same day of the following week.

107 Decisions are taken by opinion of the majority of the members present. In the event of a tie, the Chairperson shall have casting vote.
108 Where the Authority concerned is a recommendatory body and there is no unanimity in respect of a decision, the dissenting note shall be appended to the resolution at the written request of the dissenting members.

109 The Chairman may, for the purpose of consultation, invite any person having special knowledge or practical experience in any subject under consideration by the Authority to attend any meeting. Such a person may speak in the meeting and otherwise take part in the proceedings but shall not be entitled to vote.

110 Each individual Authority may regulate the aspects relating to the procedure applicable to it which are not covered by this Statute. Without prejudice to the generality of these residuary powers, the jurisdiction may cover the aspects of minimum period of notice for the meeting, cut off date for circulation of agenda papers, leave of absence of the members and the procedure for moving resolutions and amendments thereto.

111 The minutes of the proceedings of the Authorities shall be approved by the Chairperson. The same shall be communicated to the members by the Registrar.

112 The decisions of the Authorities are final except in cases in which the Authority concerned receives an intimation that the decision is being examined under the orders of the Chancellor in terms of Section 8(3) of the Act.

113 (1) No person shall be qualified for election or nomination as a member of any of the authorities of the University, if on the date of such election or nomination he is -

(a) of unsound mind or a deaf mute; or

(b) an applicant to be adjudicated as an insolvent or an undischarged insolvent; or

(c) sentenced by a criminal court to imprisonment for any offence involving moral turpitude

(2) In case of dispute or doubt, the Syndicate shall determine whether a person is disqualified under section 18(1) and its decision shall be final.
114 (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sections 20 and 23 of the Act, no person who has held office as a member for a total period of six years in the Syndicate and/or the Academic Council of the University shall be eligible for election or nomination to either of the said two authorities:

Provided that for the purpose of computing the total period of six years referred to in this Statute, the period of three years during which a person held office in one authority either by election or by nomination and the period of three years during which he held office in another authority either by election or by nomination shall be taken into account and accordingly such person shall not be eligible for election or nomination to either Syndicate or the Academic Council.

Provided further that for the purpose of this Statute, a person who has held office for a period not less than one year in any of the authorities in a casual vacancy shall be deemed to have held office for a period of three years in that authority:

Provided also that for the purpose of this Statute, if a person was elected or nominated to one authority and such person become a member of another authority by virtue of the membership in the first mentioned authority, the period for which he held office in the first mentioned authority alone shall be taken into account.

(2) Nothing in this Statute shall have application in respect of Ex-officio members referred Act Section 20 and 23 of the Act.

115 All the authorities of the University shall have power to constitute or reconstitute committees and to delegate to them such of their powers as they deem fit; such committees shall, save as otherwise provided, consist of members of the authority concerned and of such other persons, if any, as the authority in each case, may deem fit.

116 All casual vacancies among the members other than ex-officio members of an authority or other body of the University shall be filled as soon as conveniently may be, by the person or body who or which, nominated or elected the member whose place has become vacant and the person nominated or elected to a casual vacancy shall be a member of such authority or body for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.
117 No act or proceeding of any authority or other body of the University shall be invalidated merely by reason of the existence of any vacancy or of any defect or irregularity in the election or appointment of a member of such authority or other body of the University or of any defect or irregularity in such act or proceedings not affecting the merits of the case or on the ground only that the authority or other body of the University did not meet at such intervals as required under this Act.

118 If any question arises whether any person has been duly elected or nominated as, or is entitled to be, a member of any authority of the University or other body of the University, the question shall be referred to the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final.

119 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, the Government may, by order in writing, call for any information from the University on any matter relating to the affairs of the university and the University shall, if such information is available with it, furnish to the Government with such information with in a reasonable period.

Provided that in the case of information which the University considers confidential, the University may place the same before the Chancellor and the Pro-Chancellor.
CHAPTER - XI

LEGAL ADVISER

120. It shall be competent for the Syndicate to appoint a Legal Adviser for such period, and on such remuneration and other terms, to perform such duties as it may fix from time to time.

121. The Legal Adviser so appointed shall not be a member of any authority of the University.
CHAPTER - XII
